MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Pursuant to Evidence Code sections 452(d), 453, and 459, and rule 8.252(a) of the California Rules of Court, Respondent Tania Pulliam requests that this Court take judicial notice of the updated register of actions in the underlying case and subsequent orders and documents filed with the trial court evidencing Pulliam's efforts to enforce the judgment. These documents are listed in the supporting declaration of Arlyn L. Escalante and are attached to this request.

These records show the extensive post-judgment work Pulliam's counsel had to perform to get Petitioner TD Auto Finance to pay the amount Pulliam had paid on her vehicle purchase contract. These records were filed or entered after the order that is the subject of this appeal.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

INTRODUCTION

The issues on review involve the availability of attorneys' fees and costs that a consumer has to expend to enforce the Federal Trade Commission's Holder Rule (the Rule) against the holder of their consumer credit contract. In this case, Tania Pulliam sued a car dealership that misrepresented the car she bought, and the financing company TD Auto Finance (TDAF), as the holder of her vehicle purchase contract. The case went to trial where the jury found for Pulliam and found that the dealership and TDAF jointly and severally liable to return all the payments Pulliam had made under the vehicle purchase contract. Both defendants appealed and refused to pay the judgment or place a bond.

Pulliam was forced to litigate further to compel TDAF and the dealership to pay the judgment, at least the amount of damages owed to her. Only after further discovery, debtor's exams, and several continued hearings did TDAF finally pay the damages owed to Pulliam – this was 21 months after the entry of judgment. During this time, the dealership, owned by HNL Automotive, had shut down and its principal, Hooman Nissani, evaded (and continues to evade) all orders from the trial court to show business financials and pay the judgment.

The trial court's post-judgment orders, issued after the order appealed from here, and the updated register of actions are important to show the lengths consumers are forced to go to just to recover their payments from a holder when they have been cheated by a dealership.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

I. The updated register of actions and post-judgment trial court orders are trial court records that are judicially noticeable.

Under Evidence Code section 452(d) this Court may take judicial notice of any court record of the United States or of any state of the United States. Each of the documents attached to this request are court records from the trial court in this case which evidence proceedings that took place after the notice of appeal was filed. (See RGC Gaslamp, LLC v. Ehmcke Sheet Metal Co., Inc. (2020) 56 Cal.App.5th 413, 418 [taking judicial notice of Register of Actions]; Evid. Code § 452(d).)

II. These post-appeal records should be considered by the Court in its review of the issues raised because these records show the practical implications of consumers' enforcement of the Holder Rule.

While it is less common for judicial notice to be requested of matters that occur after a notice of appeal has been filed, it is also certainly true that courts regularly take judicial notice of post-appeal materials that are relevant to the appeal. (See, e.g., Reserve Insurance Co. v. Pisciotta (1982) 30 Cal.3d 800, 813 [while reviewing courts generally “will consider only matters which were part of the record at the time the judgment was entered,” this rule is “somewhat flexible” and courts “have not hesitated to consider postjudgment events when legislative changes have occurred subsequent to a judgment or when subsequent events have caused issues to become moot,” internal citations omitted].) Departure from the rule that courts will not take judicial notice of postjudgment matters requires a showing of exceptional circumstances. (Weiss v. City of Del Mar (2019) 39 Cal.App.5th 609, 625.) There are such circumstances here.

The register of actions showing the procedural history of the case after entry of judgment and after the notice of appeal is relevant to show what had to transpire in this case to get TDAF to pay Pulliam's damages, especially when the defendant dealership has done everything to evade any court order against it. (Declaration of Arlyn L. Escalante, Ex. 1.) The court minute order, subsequent rulings, and Acknowledgment of Partial Satisfaction of Judgment all evidence what Pulliam has had to go through to recover her damages in this case, even after going all the way to trial, and also show her continued efforts to enforce the judgment against HNL Automotive, who has evaded its responsibility to pay the judgment and has repeatedly violated court orders. (Id., Exs. 2-5.)

CONCLUSION

These judicially noticeable court records show the real-world implications of letting a holder litigate incessantly before paying a consumer's damages, all with the impunity of never having to pay attorneys' fees or costs for this litigation. This Court should take judicial notice of these records.

Pulliam vs. HNI Automotive, Inc., et. al., Case No. BC633169

Tentative Ruling re: Defendant's Motion to Tax Costs

Defendant TD Auto Finance LLC (TDAF) moves to tax the attorney fees sought in the memorandum of costs as well as $4,444.03 from the total post judgment costs of $5,697.80. The motion is granted in part.

As an initial matter the Court declines to limit any award against TDAF pursuant to the Holder Rule. The Court has no jurisdiction to address the propriety of the initial award of attorney's fees against TDAF since this matter is on appeal. Finally, the Court declines to stay this motion pending decision by the Court of Appeal.

Pursuant to Civil Code section 1794, "If the buyer prevails in an action under this section, the buyer shall be allowed by the court to recover as part of the judgment a sum equal to the aggregate amount of costs and expenses ... determined by the court to have been reasonably incurred by the buyer in connection with the commencement and prosecution of such action." (Civ. Code, § 1794, subd. (d).)

A judgment creditor is entitled to the reasonable and necessary costs of enforcing a judgment. Attorney's fees incurred in enforcing a judgment are included as costs collectible under this title if the underlying judgment includes an award of attorney's fees to the judgment creditor pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of Section 1033.5." (Code Civ. Proc., § 685.040.)

A judgment debtor may "apply to the court on noticed motion to have costs taxed by the court." (Code Civ. Proc., § 685.070, subd. (c).) The motion must be filed and served "[b]efore the judgment is fully satisfied but not later than two years after the costs have been incurred." (Conservatorship of McQueen (2014) 59 Cal.4th 602, 607, n. 4.)

Here, Plaintiff obtained a jury verdict and an award of $169,602 in attorney fees. (Le Decl., ¶ 2, Exh. A.) Since the underlying judgment contained an award of attorney fees, Plaintiff may recover attorney fees as costs in enforcing the judgment. (Code Civ. Proc., § 685.040.)

Plaintiff filed a memorandum of costs signed by attorney Michael A. Klitzke. On a motion to tax costs, "the verified memorandum of costs is prima facie evidence of their propriety, of the items listed on it, and the burden is on the party challenging these costs to demonstrate that they were not reasonable or necessary. [Citations.]" (Adams v. Ford Motor Co. (2011) 199 Cal.App.4th 1475, 1486.) Plaintiff did fail to attach the billing invoices of her counsel to the memorandum of costs. However, Plaintiff produces the verified billing invoices in the opposition to this motion. (Klitzke Decl., Exh. 1.) TDAF does not argue that counsel's rates are unreasonable nor does TDAF argue that the amount of time spent on any of the tasks was unreasonable.

In order to overcome the presumption of reasonableness of attorney fees, the opposing side must produce evidence and cannot merely conclude in their memorandum of points and authorities that fees are not reasonable. TDAF argues that the billing entries are not reasonable or necessary but produces no evidence in support of this argument. (see Premier Medical Management Systems, Inc. v. California Insurance Guarantee Association (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 550, 560 (emphasizing that opposing parties "submitted no evidence that the hours claimed by counsel were excessive," and declining to "declare as a matter of law that the hours were unreasonable"); Villanueva v. City of Colton (2008) 160 Cal.App.4th 1188, 1204 (opposing party "offered no evidence of any kind which might have warranted a reduced fee award.”.) “Mere statements in the points and authorities accompanying its notice of motion to strike cost bill and the declaration of its counsel are insufficient to rebut the prima facie showing.” (Rappenecker v. Sea-Land Service, Inc. (1979) 93 Cal.App.3d 256, 266 (Rappenecker).

TDAF does point to a few duplicate entries. Plaintiff concedes that these entries were duplicated in error in the supplemental brief and has deleted the time entries. Accordingly, Plaintiff has lowered her fee request to $42,946.50 for 133.8 hours of work. (Supp. Klitzke Decl., ¶ 3, Exh. 5.)

TDAF argues the some of the billing entries are prohibited block billing and therefore all the attorney fees should be taxed as a result. Block-billing is generally disfavored. (See Heritage Pac. Fin. LLC v. Monroy (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 972, 1010 [block billing problematic when the practice “prevents the court ... from discerning which tasks are compensable and which are not”].) The Court finds that this is not a problem in this case. The block-billing entries that TDAF specifically objects to are solely related to driving to and from post-judgment hearings. Thus, there is no vagueness to these billing entries and the costs appear to be reasonable and necessary to pursue post-judgment enforcement.

TDAF further objects specifically to the $1,880 that TDAF paid to Plaintiff to settle the discovery dispute between the parties. TDAF argues that it would be double recovery to allow Plaintiff to recover these costs. Plaintiff argues that the $1,880 payment did not pay for attorney fees, costs, or expenses incurred in drafting the motions, rather the payment was simply to settle the outstanding issue of sanctions against TDAF. The Court disagrees with Plaintiff. Had the motions gone forward, those sanctions would have been to compensate Plaintiff’s counsel for work done on the motions to compel. Therefore, the Court strikes these costs.

Finally, TDAF objects to Plaintiff’s fees incurred in opposing this motion. TDAF only makes conclusory arguments and does not produce any evidence showing why fees cannot be recovered on this motion. The fees expended on this motion are $6,944. This includes $2,624 spent on the opposition, and $4,192 meeting and conferring on TDAF’s request for supplemental briefing, reviewing the supplemental briefing, and drafting this Supplemental Brief. (Klitzke Oppos. Decl., ¶7; Supp. Klitzke Decl., ¶ 6.) Counsel anticipates an additional $128 for appearing at the hearing remotely. (Supp. Klitzke Decl., ¶ 6.) The Court finds these amounts reasonable and thus will not tax them.

In total, the Court is taxing $1880 from the requested $42,946.50, representing a new total of $41,066.50. Including the fees for this motion, the total of attorney fees awarded is $48,138.50.

Finally, TDAF seeks to tax $4,444.03 in costs for: (1) $197.80 for postage and photocopying, (2) $93.74 for investigation fees, (3) $344.03 for messenger costs, (4) $1,473.46 for travel expenses, (5) $2,035 in court reporter fees, and (6) $300 for unexplained fees, which are not allowed under Code of Civil Procedure Section 1033.5, subdivision (b).

The Court may use its discretion to allow the fees that are not strictly filing fees, as the prima facie verified memorandum of costs shows that these items appear to be reasonably necessary to the litigation. The costs associated with attorney messenger and delivery services has been upheld in multiple appellate cases. (Ladas v. California State Auto. Assn. (1993) 19 Cal.App.4th 761, 774–776 (Ladas); Sanford v. Rasnick (2016) 246 Cal.App.4th 1121, 1132–1133 (Sanford).

The Beverly-Song Act allows a successful plaintiff to recover both “costs” and “expenses.” (See Civ. Code, § 1794, subd. (d).) Courts have held that “it is clear the Legislature intended the word ‘expenses’ to cover items not included in the detailed statutory definition of ‘costs.’” (Jensen v. BMW of North America, Inc. (1995) 35 Cal.App.4th 112, 137 (Jensen)). The court in Jensen held that “[t]he legislative history indicates the Legislature exercised its power to permit the recovery of expert witness fees by prevailing buyers under the Act ... ,” noting that the legislature included “expenses” in the lemon law act because “[t]he addition of awards of “costs and expenses” by the court to the consumer to cover such out-of-pocket expenses as filing fees, expert witness fees, marshal’s fees, etc., should open the litigation process to everyone.’ [Citation.]” (Ibid.)

Moreover, these costs are exactly the kinds of costs that Civil Code section 1794 covers, as ordinary consumers may not be able to pursue a remedy without the protections of this statute. (See Wohlgemuth v. Caterpillar, Inc. (2012) 207 Cal.App.4th 1252, 1262 [“the provision for recovery of costs and attorney fees in section 1794(d) is an important aspect of this consumer protection, and without it many would not be financially able to pursue a remedy.”].)

Finally, the “unexplained fees” have been adequately explained. These fees were for two ex parte applications and for a bench warrant. (Opposition, at pp. 9:26-10:1.)

The Court denies the motion and will not tax Plaintiff's other costs.

Pulliam vs. HNL Automotive, Inc., et. al., Case No. BC633169

Tentative Ruling re: Plaintiff's Motion for Assignment Order

Plaintiff moves for an order assigning payment rights due to Defendant HNL Automotive, Inc. (Defendant) to Plaintiff. The motion is granted.

Under Code of Civil Procedure section 708.510, subdivision (c), a court may order a judgment debtor to assign to a judgment creditor "all or part of a right to payment due or to become due, whether or not the right is conditioned on future developments."

"[I]n determining whether to order an assignment or the amount of an assignment pursuant to subdivision (a), the court may take into consideration all relevant factors, including the following:

- (1) The reasonable requirements of a judgment debtor who is a natural person and of persons supported in whole or in part by the judgment debtor.
- (2) Payments the judgment debtor is required to make or that are deducted in satisfaction of other judgments and wage assignments, including earnings assignment orders for support.
- (3) The amount remaining due on the money judgment.
- (4) The amount being or to be received in satisfaction of the right to payment that may be assigned."

The outstanding judgment is for $169,602.00. Post-judgment interest has been accruing at a rate of 10% per annum since the judgment was entered on September 11, 2018, resulting in a current amount due of $198,922.24. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendant HNL Automotive, Inc. dba Hooman Nissan of Long Beach has a right to payments from Farmers & Merchants Bank of Long Beach and Nissan Motor Acceptance Corporation. (Klitzke Decl., at ¶¶ 5-6.)

In opposition, Defendant does not dispute that it has the right to payments from Farmers & Merchants Bank of Long Beach and Nissan Motor Acceptance Corporation. Defendant instead argues that a bond has been posted in the required amount. Defendant argues that since the entire amount of the remaining outstanding judgment has been bonded, any judgment enforcement actions should be stayed. A judgment for damages and attorney fees must be bonded, because attorney fees, unlike costs, are not routinely a part of most judgments. (Banks v. Manos (1991) 232 Cal.App.3d 123, 127.) The entire judgment must be bonded to stay execution on appeal. (Id. at p. 129.)

Defendant's argument is meritless. The Court finds that Defendant failed to follow the order of the court of Department 44. There, the court ordered that "if a sufficient bond is not posted by September 4, 2019 the stay on enforcement is lifted." (Klitzke Decl., Exh. 4.) Defendant did not post a bond by September 4, 2019 and indeed has never posted a bond. A bond was posted on February 25, 2020 in the amount of $339,204 by co-defendant TD Auto Finance, LLC. (Klitzke Decl., Exh. 5.) This posting was both untimely and not on behalf of Defendant HNL which is jointly liable for the judgment.
