Re: Appellant's Focus Letter
People v. Magdaleno Salazar
California Supreme Court Case No. S077524

SUPREME COURT
FILED
FEB 17 2016
Frank A. McGuire Clerk
Deputy

Dear Mr. McGuire:

Oral argument in the above-referenced case has been calendared on Tuesday, March 1, 2016 at 1:30 p.m.

At that session, I intend to address the following arguments:

1. The unanimity of doubt language in CALJIC Nos. 8.71 and 8.72 unconstitutionally lowered the state's burden of proof (Argument II);
2. The trial court's failure to correctly respond to the jury's written question was constitutional error (Argument III);
3. Charging appellant with capital murder when the sole special circumstance was a juvenile conviction, in which appellant was not the shooter, was constitutional error (Argument VI);
4. The trial court conducted a constitutionally inadequate voir dire that violated appellant's constitutional rights and resulted in a miscarriage of justice (Argument VII); and
5. The trial court erred by prohibiting trial counsel from eliciting information regarding the co-defendant's conviction for manslaughter (Argument XI).

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES THOMSON
Attorney for Magdaleno Salazar
