JOHN DOE v. LONG BEACH
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Petitioner's request to file the petition for review, application for relief from default, and supporting declaration under seal is granted. (Cal. Rules of Court, rules 2.550(d), 8.46(d).) In ordering the sealing, this court makes the findings required by California Rules of Court, rules 2.550(d)-(e) and 8.46(d)(6). Petitioner's proposed sealed pleadings reveal confidential medical information, which petitioner contends may be connected to his legal name if the pleadings are not filed under seal. Petitioner bases this contention on the fact that he was required to disclose his legal name on the record when requesting confidential accommodations. Petitioner's overriding medical privacy interest, and the confidentiality of accommodation requests, overcomes the right of the public to access the record, and supports sealing the record. This interest would likely be prejudiced if the redacted portions of the record were not sealed, and the order is tailored to only include those portions of the pleadings. The clerk of this court is directed to file the unredacted petition for review, application for relief from default, and supporting declaration under seal, and the redacted pleadings publicly. The petition for review is denied.
