S171393PEOPLE v. McDANIEL
(DON'TE LAMONT)

Rehearing denied; opinion modified

ORDER MODIFYING OPINION AND DENYING PETITION FOR REHEARINGTHE COURT:

The majority opinion in this matter, filed on August 26, 2021, and appearing at 12 Cal.5th 97, is modified as follows:

1. The second paragraph on page 120, beginning “The prosecutor explained that,” is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following paragraph:

The prosecutor noted that Prospective Juror No. 46 believed that life without parole and the death penalty “are essentially the same because life in prison is not a life.” The prosecutor also explained that the prospective juror did not believe the death penalty was a deterrent, “which is not an attitude that I considered to be a fair attitude.” He was also concerned that Prospective Juror No. 46 listened to a “very liberal political radio station where they frequently have specials and guest speakers and interviews that are anti-death penalty advocates.”

2. The second sentence of the second full paragraph on page 124, beginning “Comparing the final composition,” is modified to add “, while not in itself decisive,” after “pool” so that the sentence now reads:

Comparing the final composition of the jury to the overall pool, while not in itself decisive, reveals that Black jurors were overrepresented on the jury, even factoring in the disallowed strike of Prospective Juror No. 46.

This modification does not affect the judgment.

The petition for rehearing is denied. Defendant’s request for modification of the opinion is denied.

S269663ADMIN. ORDER 2021-10-20-01

Order filed

STATE BAR RULE 9.42(c)

On July 2, 2021, attorney Michael Millen filed a petition requesting this court to adopt amendments to rule 9.42 of the Rules of Court to permit students engaged in a law office studies program, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6060, subdivision (e)(2)(B), to participate in the Practical Training for Law Students (PTLS) program. The request is denied without prejudice.

The court recognizes the potential importance of supervised practical training as a way of better preparing aspiring attorneys for competent practice. Therefore, the court directs the State Bar Board of Trustees to study and consider whether changes to rule 9.42 that would authorize students enrolled in a law office or judicial chambers' studies program to participate in the PTLS program would be prudent. The State Bar shall also consider whether any rule amendments may be necessary to provide additional protections to the public and to the judicial system. Prior to adopting and submitting any recommended rule amendments to the court, the State Bar shall solicit and consider public comment regarding the proposed changes.

It is so ordered.
