Petition for writ of habeas corpus denied

S286658

HALL (NATHANIEL VERNON) ON H.C.

The petition for writ of habeas corpus has been read and considered. Petitioner contends, among other claims, that he is entitled to relief under the Racial Justice Act of 2020 (Pen. Code, § 745) and requests the appointment of counsel. In this respect, petitioner alleges that he was charged or convicted of a more serious offense than defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins who have engaged in similar conduct and are similarly situated, and that a longer or more severe sentence was imposed on petitioner than on other similarly situated defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins in Santa Clara County.

The petition does not satisfy the statutory requirements for the appointment of counsel under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e) [providing for the appointment of counsel for an indigent petitioner who alleges facts that would establish a violation of the Racial Justice Act].) The petition fails to make a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).) Petitioner's claims that he was charged or convicted of a more serious offense than defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins who have engaged in similar conduct and are similarly situated, and that a longer or more severe sentence was imposed on petitioner than on other similarly situated defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins in Santa Clara County, have been previously raised and rejected in this court. (In re Miller (1941) 17 Cal.2d 734, 735 [courts will not entertain habeas corpus claims that are repetitive].) Petitioner fails to provide any new evidence that could not have been known by petitioner with due diligence in support of the claim. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).)

The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied.

S287355*YOUNG (BRIAN JASON) ON H.C.

The petition for writ of habeas corpus has been read and considered. Petitioner contends, among other claims, that he is entitled to relief under the Racial Justice Act of 2020 (Pen. Code, § 745). In this respect, petitioner appears to claim Alameda County Superior Court engaged in racially biased prosecution methods in 2011. He further contends he has been denied access to unspecified “documents and records.”

The petition fails to make a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).) The petition fails to allege particularized facts that adequately describe how Alameda County Superior Court violated the Racial Justice Act. The petition also does not allege facts to support a claim that petitioner was charged, convicted, or sentenced in a more severe manner than similarly situated individuals of other races, ethnicities, or national origins. (Pen. Code, § 745, subd. (a)(1)-(4); cf. In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must allege sufficient facts with particularity].) Nor does petitioner describe or attach supporting documentary evidence concerning his contentions. (Cf. People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal.4th 464, 474 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must include copies of reasonably available documentary evidence].)

The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied.

S287553*BROWN (JEREMY) v. S.C.
(PEOPLE)

The petition for writ of mandate is construed as a petition for writ of habeas corpus. The petition for writ of habeas corpus has been read and considered. Petitioner contends, among other claims, that he is entitled to relief under the Racial Justice Act of 2020 (Pen. Code, § 745). In this respect, petitioner claims he was charged and sentenced more harshly than similarly situated defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins in Solano County. The petition also fails to make a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).) The petition does not allege specific facts to support a claim that petitioner was charged, convicted, or sentenced in a more severe manner than similarly situated individuals of other races, ethnicities, or national origins. (Pen. Code, § 745, subd. (a)(1)-(4); cf. In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must allege sufficient facts with particularity].) Nor does petitioner adequately describe or attach supporting documentary evidence concerning his claims such as statistical evidence, aggregate data, or nonstatistical evidence. (Cf. People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal.4th 464, 474 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must include copies of reasonably available documentary evidence].) The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied.
