Order to show cause issued, returnable in Superior Court

In light of the Attorney General's concession in his July 31, 2024 informal response, we deem the Attorney General to have waived his right to the issuance of an order to show cause. (See People v. Romero (1994) 8 Cal.4th 728, 740, fn. 7.) The Kern County Superior Court is ordered to consider whether to strike the firearm enhancements attached to counts 5 and 6 pursuant to Senate Bill No. 620 (2017-2018 Reg. Sess.) (Stats. 2017, ch. 682). If the superior court strikes the firearm enhancements, it shall consider whether to modify petitioner's existing sentence, or to instead resentence petitioner.

The petition for writ of habeas corpus has been read and considered. Petitioner contends, among other claims, that he is entitled to relief under the Racial Justice Act of 2020 (Pen. Code, § 745) and requests appointment of counsel and discovery. In this respect, petitioner claims he was sentenced in a more severe manner than similarly situated individuals of different races, ethnicities, and national origins.

The petition does not satisfy the statutory requirements for the disclosure of discovery or the appointment of counsel under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, §§ 745, subd. (d) [providing for disclosure of evidence relevant to violations of the Racial Justice Act]; 1473, subd. (e) [providing for the appointment of counsel for an indigent petitioner who alleges facts that would establish a violation of the Racial Justice Act].)

The petition also fails to make a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).) The petition fails to allege particularized facts to support a claim that petitioner was sentenced in a more severe manner than similarly situated individuals of other races, ethnicities, or national origins. Nor does petitioner describe or attach supporting documentary evidence concerning racial bias or animus or the use of racially discriminatory language. (Pen. Code, § 745, subd. (a)(1)-(4); cf. In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must allege sufficient facts with particularity]; cf. also People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal.4th 464, 474 [a petition for writ of habeas corpus must include copies of reasonably available documentary evidence].)

The requests for counsel and discovery are denied. The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied.

Code, § 745) and requests the disclosure of discovery. In this respect, petitioner claims he was charged with more serious offenses than other similarly situated defendants of other races, ethnicities, or national origins and received a longer or more severe sentence due to the race of one of the victims than other similarly situated defendants in cases with victims of a different race, ethnicity, or national origin.

The petition does not satisfy the statutory requirements for the disclosure of discovery under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, §§ 745, subd. (d) [providing for disclosure of evidence relevant to violations of the Racial Justice Act].)

The petition fails to make a prima facie showing of entitlement to relief under the Racial Justice Act. (Pen. Code, § 1473, subd. (e).) The petition fails to allege particularized facts that adequately describe any alleged actions and how they reflected racial bias or animus. Nor does petitioner describe or attach supporting documentary evidence concerning racial bias or animus or the use of racially discriminatory language. (Pen. Code, § 745, subd.
