Petition for review granted; issues limited

The Labor Commissioner's request for judicial notice, filed on August 26, 2022, is granted. The petition for review is granted.

The issues to be briefed and argued are limited to the following:

1. Must an employer demonstrate that it affirmatively took steps to ascertain whether its pay practices comply with the Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders to establish a good faith defense to liquidated damages under Labor Code section 1194.2, subdivision (b)?
2. May a wage claimant prosecute a paid sick leave claim under section 248.5, subdivision (b) of the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act of 2014 (Lab. Code, § 245 et seq.) in a de novo wage claim trial conducted pursuant to Labor Code section 98.2?

The requests for an order directing republication of the opinion are denied.

Pending review, the opinion of the Court of Appeal, which is currently published at 80 Cal.App.5th 427, may be cited, not only for its persuasive value, but also for the limited purpose of establishing the existence of a conflict in authority that would in turn allow trial courts to exercise discretion under *Auto Equity Sales, Inc. v. The parties are hereby directed to meet and confer promptly after that date and to file briefs apprising the court of their respective positions on the issues set forth in this court's September 1, 2021 order. The parties should attach or otherwise file copies of the disclosures made by the State Bar insofar as the parties disagree about the scope of the disclosures. Petitioner shall serve and file its brief within seven days of receiving these disclosures from the State Bar. The State Bar shall serve and file a responsive brief within seven
